3 DAYS WITH
Kamalatmika

She is abundance in its wildest, most ungoverned form, a vision of flourishing in which nourishment, beauty, creative power, discernment and sovereignty belong together

To connect with her essence is to remember Prosperity as an embodied empowerment in it's own right.

KAMALATMIKA

She whose very self is the lotus

Goddess of Abundance · Prosperity · Fertility

WHO IS SHE?

The wild, tribal, unowned generosity of the earth.

Golden, four-armed, seated on a lotus at the still surface of dark water; four elephants pouring jars of nectar over her; two hands holding lotuses, two offering you her gestures of boon and fearlessness.

The tenth and final Mahavidya, the closing note of the ten great wisdoms, and the Tantric face of Lakshmi, goddess of a rooted prosperity.

SHE IS PROSPERITY IN ITS FIRST AND MOST HONEST FORM, NOT WHAT YOU RECEIVE, BUT WHAT YOU ALREADY ARE.

DAY 1 — ROOT · Friday 20 November.

First, we arrive — open the space that will hold us, and meet her at the root.

- Opening Sacred Space — We invoke the directions and set our altar.
- The Goddess Enters — met through mantra, story and the body.
- Sensual Alchemy — We make our own oils for protection & anointment
- Setting Intention — Devi Kavach, we activate the armour of the goddess.
- Dinner — A nourishing root-chakra menu enhancing vitality.

DAY 2 — RISE · Saturday 21 November

The root sends up its stem, and we let her rise through us.

- On the Mat — Movement and music for the root chakra, leading into a womb healing
- Brunch — Slow and generous
- Heart Centred Breathwork — Breath as a doorway: go under the surface and listen.
- Ingtegration rituals by the Sea — Golden hour on the beach.
- Character building.music, singing, a swim, water and flower blessings.
- Dinner at La Plage.

DAY 3 — BLOOM · Sunday 22 November.

We seal what has opened, so the bloom goes home with you.

- Breakfast — Unhurried. Conversational.
- Closing Circle — We contain & close the energetic journey initiated on the first night.

Karishma

Karishma is a ceremonial space holder, breathwork facilitator and feminine embodiment guide devoted to liberating the authentic self and feminine sovereignty.

Within ALL.KA.MI, her creative studio of transformation & healing , she weaves together a unqiue tapestry of pathways using conscious connected breathwork, somatic enquiry, archetypal wisdom and sacred ceremonial practices.

Rooted in the wisdom traditions of the Rose path, earth-centric indigenous spirituality and her own ongoing Dasya Maha Vidya embodiment sadhana, she creates spaces of reverence, attunement and deep inner exploration.

Her invitation here is to return to the body as sacred ground, cultivate trust in & curiosity for it's innate intelligence, and deepen the capacity to inhabit and express the full aliveness of one's evolving nature.

Natasha

Natasha Mahindra is a certified yoga therapist, chakra healer, spiritual guide and founder of Anam Cara Retreats, a Yoga travel and spiritual company. She is a certified yoga therapist from the Kripalu Center in Massachusetts.

Some of her most profound work is with women, guiding women to live in rhythm with the moon and their own natural cycles. Her hormone-balancing practices and ancient goddess rituals help women reconnect with the sacred feminine within.

Every year she leads Navratri and goddess programs — nine nights of ritual, dance, mudra meditation and story honoring the Goddess.
Stepping beyond traditional asanas, she shares dynamic dance meditation, sound, art and ancient Tantric and Vedic practices — creating beautiful, intimate gatherings out in nature, from the jungles of Kanha and the Maha Kumbh Mela to Greece, Tuscany, Spiti, Mallorca, Nepal and Goa.

RISE

Unlocking the felt sense of abundance & inner resourcefulness through body and breath.
Water & flower blessings. Song, Story & Sisterhood

Today the root sends up it's stem, and we let her rise through us, shifting energy through movement, breath, ritual and the sea.

There is no wrong way to be you. There is only the slow, sensuous business of remembering your own ground, and allowing what is already fertile in you to begin to re shape & re store your authentic experience

DEVI RISING

Slow ritual and honest silence.
Movement and breath held lMantra and loving enquiry for the body's oldest language to unfurl & be heard long enough to soften you.

Goddess rituals and quiet adoration. The sea at sunset. Food chosen to nourish. And other women, holding the space with you.

ANSWER THE CALL

If something in you calls you to this work, a softening, a curiosity, a subtle knowing, please trust it.

We will tend to the space. We will cook for you, sing with you, sit with you, and let the sea do her part to hold us in our expansion.
All you have to do is show up , exactly as you are.

To meet Kamalatmika. To come willing to root yourself within, in the grace of other sisters, for three days.

With love,
Karishma & Natasha
